

What is NAV, and What can NAV do for You?

What is NAV?

- NAV was established in 2006, and is the merger between the Public Employment Service and the Social Security Administration
- In addition, several municipal services are integrated in NAV, like social assistance and often also the Introduction Program for refugees and asylum seekers.
- NAV administer a third of the national budget through schemes such as:
 - unemployment benefit
 - sickness benefit
 - child benefit and other family related benefits
 - pensions
 - and a wide range of other public benefits

NAV Offers a Wide Range of Services

- Assistive technology and tools for employees with disabilities and physical challenges
- Continuous follow-up of people on sick leave (together with medical doctors and employers)
- Occupational rehabilitation: Assisting employees who for health reasons have difficulty in finding or keeping jobs
- Social assistance
